Re. Unsub, aka Cooper
167-177

6/21/82

Dear John,

Excuse my "personal letter" and lack of #302, but I wanted to drop you a line. Please forward this info to [redacted]

Virtually all the description compares with [redacted]

Age [redacted]

about 8'10"-5'11"

weighs now about 200 lbs

but years ago weighed much less - quite thin

olive-type complexion

Dark hair combed back-straight

Very polite, friendly, low-voice

* Extremely heavy smoker - now of cork-tipped cigarette - possibly Marlboro - the same type as Raleigh. (more below)

Obviously has good clothes & big/cup.
Reasonably good athlete

I haven't been able to establish whether he travelled around the region, 1971, but holiday time would be natural for [redacted] I'm going to go to the local library in a day or two, to see if by chance I could find [redacted] This could possibly be in the Frankfurt Times.

His background: His [redacted]

[redacted] - all are extremely kind, reliable, personable, but not too sharp or too hard working. I was raised with the family, [redacted]

[redacted] As near as I could find out, [redacted] was in the [redacted] in the early [redacted] but it somehow sticks in my mind that he had something to do with flying a parachute. In recent years he was [redacted]

(3) His whole family doesn't really worry about money, the others all think he's all quite free & easy. I can't imagine who he could get to help him, but he could be in California to visit [redacted] in the b6
LA area. I assume the $20,000 b7C
was serialized & hasn't appeared,
but a real good possibility would be
for the money to be "done clean"
through the bank [redacted]

The unnamed "Copper" hasn't rang a bell to me, although that is a common name around here. I talked with [redacted] about [redacted] b6
[redacted] b7C

[redacted]

If he is to be interviewed,
I would strongly recommend that [redacted]. It is very important to stay out of his office. b6
It is quite public and he could have b7C gun in his desk - & you might not know how he could [redacted]
[redacted]

and embarrassment to him.

b6
b7C

I haven't been able to do more
without making it public - [redacted]
is still a very close friend of mine,
but so much of this case fits into
this possibility.

Hope I can help more

b6
b7C

P. S. Sorry for the long letter, but I needed to get in Deacon on paper!
See you!

9/28/82

Dear John,

Enclosed my last effort
for photos of [redacted]

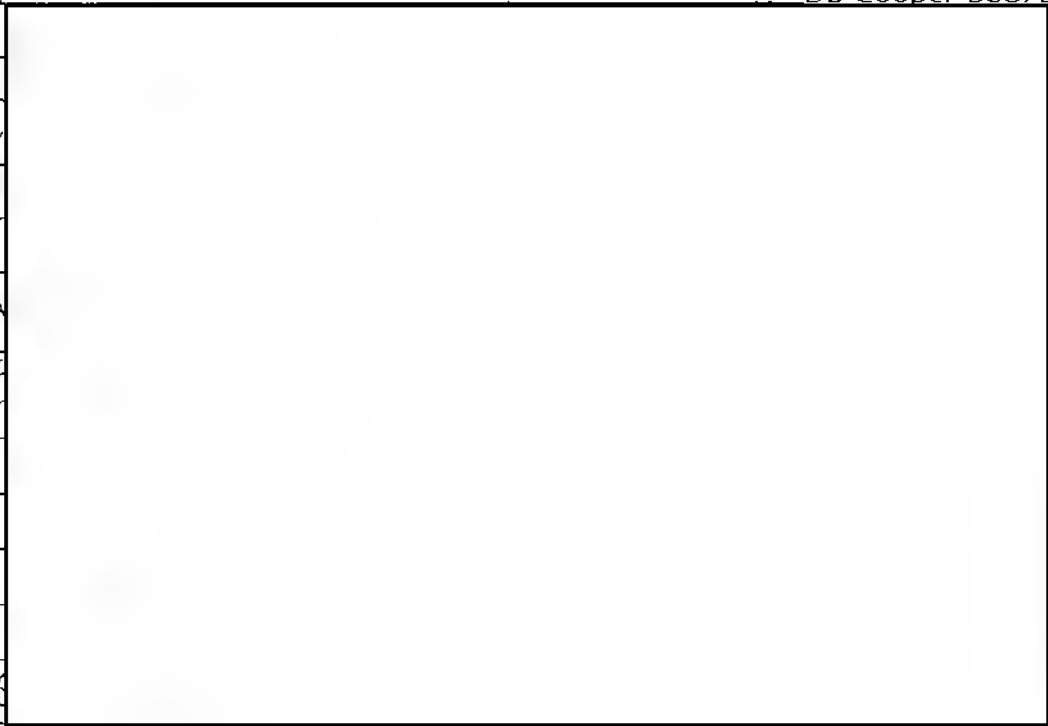

b6
b7C

a good [redacted] photo with other faces in the picture & 2 slides. The slides I got by my going through about 1100 slides - it took awhile!

I'm keeping busy -
